

Kobe University Fund

This scholarship program is newly established in 2013 in order to conduct extensive educational and research exchanges with partner institutions.

1. Student who have achieved a superior academic record and have clear-cut objectives of studying at Kobe University.
2. Student who does not receive scholarships from other organization.